

MATCH THE SKILLS!

The key to success in dealing with US companies is understanding the business culture. Being a local means you can talk, think, and negotiate like an American. With our free-lance executive you can match the skills of a top US executive with a top Czech management professional living in the US. You will always be ready to meet your US partners and negotiate beneficial deals. A local Free-lance Executive becomes part of your team by using your business cards and representing your management in the US.

A Free-lance manager will represent your company at meetings in Silicon Valley on hourly basis.

Advantages and Benefits:

- Image a Silicon Valley company;
- Available top management professional living in the US ready to meet or call your partners;
- Better chance of closing deals by using a professional negotiator;
- No accommodation, medical insurance, car insurance or travel expenses you would pay for you're an employee in the US;
- Dealing with a Czech native speaker highly knowledgeable of the Czech business environment with established contacts in the US and the Czech Republic;
- You will never miss a "golden" opportunity by not being able to meet with your US partners.

What can you expect?

- Dedicated professional with 10 + years experience in Czech top management living in the Silicon Valley
- Paying only for the upfront agreed time
- Costs are all-inclusive for meetings in the Silicon Valley area;
- Representation anywhere in the US (travel expenses not included);
- Meeting reports tailored to your needs;
- High end expertise in business development and negotiation.